

The Driver & Vehicle Agency online booking service uses 128 bit encryption and verisign security certificates to ensure all financial transactions are secure.

Please note, depending on the configuration and versions of individual PCs you may receive a warning that the security certificate has expired.

Further information on security certificates can be found at www.verisign.co.uk and www.microsoft.com